

Honored Artist of Russia Igor Karzov was born in 1974 in Leningrad. Graduated from the Secondary Special Music School (class of Professor V.M.Buyanovsky) and the St. Petersburg Conservatory (class of Professor A.E. Glukhov). In 1994 he began to work in the Honored collective of the St. Petersburg Philharmonic. Since 2011 he has been the concertmaster of the French horns group. Worked with such conductors as Y. Temirkanov, M. Jansons, V. Gergiev, K. Giulini, G. Solti, N. Yarvi, E. Svetlanov, V. Ashkenazi, G. Rozhdestvensky, Y. Simonov, V. Sinaisky, M. Rostropovich, and many others. Actively gives concerts as a soloist and as an ensemble player, gives master classes in different countries of the world. Since 2001 he has been teaching at St. Petersburg State Conservatory, is an assistant professor at the Department of Brass and Percussion Instruments. Regularly invited to various competitions as a member of the jury.