

Wei Yun, violin instructor at the Affiliated Primary and Secondary School of the Shanghai Conservatory of Music and council member of the Shanghai Musicians Association's Violin Committee. Formerly served as concertmaster of the Shanghai Oriental Symphony Orchestra. Has taught at the Affiliated Secondary School since 2006, during which time she received the Ministry of Culture's Outstanding Instructor Award and the third prize in the He Luting Foundation Award from the Shanghai Conservatory of Music. In recent years, her teaching engagements have extended to national summer programmes including the Zhuhai International String Masterclass and Qingdao International Violin Masterclass. Additionally, she has served as a judge for numerous international and domestic music competitions, including the Qingdao National Violin Concerto Competition, the Zhuhai Hengqin Cup National Violin Sonata Competition, the Magnolia International Music Festival Violin Competition, the China Good Violin Sound Competition, the Hummingbird Music Award for Chinese Youth Competitions, the Asian Art Competition, and the Hong Kong International Violin Competition.