

Adriel Collomb started violin at the age of six and half, first in a music school in France; then he took only private lessons with Irina Medvedeva in Toulouse, France, every two or three weeks during two years at half; since September 2020 he studies in Brussels with Igor Tkatchouk