

I began playing the violin at the age of three and at the age of 12 I started my violin studies with Merit Palas in the Sibelius Academy pre-college in Helsinki, Finland . In the fall 2018 I started pursuing a Bachelor's Degree at the Cleveland Institute of Music with professor Ilya Kaler.

I have attended several violin and music master classes: 2019 Keshet Eilon String Summer Master Course (Israel) , 2017 Heifetz International Music Institute (USA), 2015 in Poland and 2014 Musica Mundi Chamber Music Master Course (Belgium) . The professors in the master classes have been Grigory Kalinovsky, Yair Kless, Gerhard Schulz, Barnabas Kelemen, Eyal Kless and Hagai Shaham.

I have attended several competitions where I have placed excellently:

- 2018 Great Composers Competition Series, Rising Talents of Americas, 1st prize
- 2017 Great Composers Competition Series, Artist of the Year, 2nd prize
- 2017 Great Composers Competition, Best Vivaldi and Best Bach Performances, 1st prize
- 2016 Enkor International Music Competition, 3rd prize
- 2015 21st Century Art Competition in Lempäälä, Finland, 1st prize
- 2014 Savshinsky International Music Competition in St. Petersburg, Russia, 3rd prize
- 2014 Stockholm International Music Competition in Stockholm, Sweden, 3rd prize
- 2013 Walgreens National Concerto Competition, Chicago, USA, honorable mention

In the winter 2020 I attended the New York String Orchestra Seminar and in the summer 2018 I played in the National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America. I played in the Cuban-European Youth Orchestra on their tour in Germany in 2017 and for three years (2014-2016) I played as the assistant concertmaster in the Jean Sibelius Orchestra. I also attended the Finnish Chamber Orchestra's Youth Academy in 2017.

I have toured around Finland, playing in sold-out concerts. I have played as a soloist with the Jyväskylä Symphony Orchestra and Campus Sinfonietta.
