Tatiana Chudovskaya was born in 2011 in Moscow, Russia in the family of musicians. From 3 to 7 she lived in Vienna where she started her music classes in gusli and piano. At 7 she returned to Moscow and continued her musical education (harp) at Musical school belonging to Moscow conservatory (professor Nina Kuprijanova). With great success Tatiana took part in various school concerts and in the International Harp Festival. After two years of excellent studies, due her father's work , Tatiana moved to Ekaterinburg and continued her education in the Urals Musical college (class of professor Veronica Lemishenko).

In February 2021 Tatiana took part in the Battle Harp concert in Sverdlovsk Filarmony.

She has won the first prize at the competition in Switzerland.