

Connie Huang, 14, has been playing piano since she was 4 years old. She is a resident of Orlando and has won numerous prizes both at the Florida Federation of Music Clubs (FFMC) and the Orlando Music Club, winner of a concerto competition at Florida State Music Teachers Association District Competition, and performed for the Lecture and Performance Series at Sarasota Music Archives at Selby Public Library in 2017. She was also the 1st place winner in the junior division of the 2016 Edvard Grieg Pre-College Piano Competition at Rollins College, along with many other awards.