

Natalia Dragan was born in 2009. She lives and studies in Legnica. She comes from a family with musical traditions, her parents and sister also play the violin. Natalia made her debut with the orchestra at the age of 6.,after several months of study, playing A. Vivaldi's Concerto in A minor and Obertas by H. Wieniawski.

Natalia has played 21 times with chamber and symphonic orchestras:

M.Bruch - Concerto No. 1 op. 26 part 3 E.Zimbalist / Rimsky-Korsakow - Concert Fantasy "Golden Cockerel"

P.Sarasate- CARMEN Fantasy

N. Paganini- Variations A Major op.posth.

N. Paganini-Venetian Carnival

A. Vivaldi Concerto in A minor

H. Wieniawski - Obertas

K. Kurpiński - Polonaise D-Major

A. Vivaldi - Seasons: "Spring"

Despite young age, Natalia performed in numerous prestigious venues. She is a laureate of 30 competitions worldwide, including Moscow, New York, Paris, Brussels, Berlin and Prague, Warsaw.

Natalia will make her debut in the prestigious KONZERTHAUS concert hall in Berlin in September. She will play F. Mendelssohn Concerto E Minor together with the orchestra.