

Nathan Agranovsky is currently a 7th grade student at Sanford Middle School in the Pre-International Baccalaureate program. He loves music, technology and reading science fiction. During the pandemic he remained social with his peers through online schooling as well as various forms of gaming. He has been studying under the instruction of Zalina Gurevich and Professor Oleg Barsov since age 4. During the pandemic, he and his music teachers adapted to the situation and continued his music education. He has received 8 consecutive superior ratings through FFMC since 2015 in numerous categories. He has received awards on international levels as well as state level competitions. For example: 2nd place in the Stockholm International Music Competition in 2021. Some state examples (FFMC) include: 1st place in Piano APFS in 2021, 1st place in Piano APFS and Honorable Mention in Hymn in 2019, in Piano Concerto in 2018, and in piano hymn and 1st place in piano concerto in 2017, and others. Within Orlando Music Clubs he has received numerous awards including 1st place in Piano APFS, Hymn, Solo in 2021. He has also received 1st place Awards in Piano Solo, APFS, Hymn, and Concerto in 2019. Additionally, in 2018 he received 2nd place awards in Piano Solo and Concerto and 1st place awards in Piano APFS and Hymn. He has also received 2nd place in the 2018 Steinway Piano Competition. He is looking forward to expanding his musical education as he continues to study and gain experiences throughout the coming years.
