

Cem Demirdağ

short biography

I was born on 17.05.2005 in Ankara. We left Ankara and moved to Aksaray city when I was 6 years old, due to my mother's job. We lived there for three years. During these years, I took lessons from the piano teacher Ali Kerim Öner at the university. In 2014, we moved to Adana, again due to my mother's job. We are still there now. I am a piano student at Çukurova University State Conservatory. Toyer Yıldız is my current piano teacher. In 2021, I participated in the International Pera Piano competition.

I like walking and cycling. I participate in stray animal protection activities. I like to listen to music of various cultures. I have a brother. I like to spend time with him and take nature walks together. I voluntarily participate in projects for the protection of the world's environment. I believe music will make the world more good.
