

BIOGRAPHY

Lucas MOREAUX was born on 01st april 2009 in the city of Douala in CAMEROON.

Since an early age, he was greatly fascinated by the works of masters like BRAHMS or RACHMANINOFF, listened with interest to the sonatas and symphonies of MOZART or BEETHOVEN.

Thanks to his natural abilities and excellent hearing, with great passion and inspiration Lucas independently started to play the piano.

Only in september of 2019, Lucas began to professionally study music with his teacher Katerina VERSHYNINA-GERARD in the private school of Music 3000 in the city of Saint-Laurent du Var on the south coast of France.

In just 2.5 years, he was able to make incredible progress from studying notes to playing complex works by BACH, MOZART, BEETHOVEN, CHOPIN or SCHUBERT.

Lucas is fond of studying the work of composers, famous musicians, listens, analyses different interpretations. He also regularly participates in concerts of students in his private music school.

This is his first experience in participating in a music international competition
