

Miyu Manabe
Pianist and musicologist

Miyu Manabe was born in Osaka, Japan. She started to play piano at Yamaha Music School when she was four years old. Later she received lessons from Kumiko Hattori in the music programme at Osaka Prefecture Yuhigaoka High School. In 2013, Miyu studied musicology with Prof. Toshie Kakinuma and studied piano at Kyoto City University of Arts where she was awarded her BMus. From 2017 to 2019, she undertook a specialized course in piano at Conservatoire à rayonnement régional de Paris with Prof. Billy Eidi, and she also studied the chamber music with Prof. Pascal Le Corre.

Since she was six years old, Miyu has joined numerous piano competitions. She received the 3rd prize in “The 16th Sakai Piano Concours” and she was a finalist in “The 3rd Tokyo International Competition”. In 2016, Miyu has been awarded the Teacher’s Prize of “The PTNA Piano Competition”.