

Shushan Arevshatyan was born on 26 February 2003 in Yerevan. Since 2021 she is the student of professor Vagharshak Harutyunyan at the Komitas State Conservatory, Yerevan. She is also attending composition classes led by Professor Levon Chavushyan and Aram Hovhannisyan. From the age of 5 she started to attending piano classes of professor Zaruhi Vardanyan at the Tchaikovsky specialized music school in Yerevan. She participated in different piano competitions and got prizes at the G. Sarajev National Competition of Young Pianists (Yerevan, 2011, Prize of Hope), A. Babajanyan International Competition-Festival for junior and young pianists (Yerevan, 2015, 5th prize), A. Babajanyan International Competition-Festival for junior and young pianists (Yerevan, 2017, 4th prize), Tengiz Amirejibi 2nd International Piano Competition (Borjomi/Georgia, 2018, 2nd prize), Yamaha music gulf fze scholarship program 2018/2019, Dubai (Diploma), Vladimir Krainev Moscow International Piano Competition- The Online Competition of Home Videos (Moscow 2020, diploma). She performed in concerts that took place in Armenia, France.