

Helsinki, Finland

<https://www.youtube.com/@littleviolin>

Maria Emeltchenko

Currently, Maria studies at the Helsinki Conservatory of Music and she actively participates in music classes with Lara Lev.

Maria's repertoire includes works by the following composers: J.S. Bach, G.P. Telemann, F. Kreisler, J. Haydn, D. Kabalevsky, N. Paganini, Pablo de Sarasate, J. Svendsen, J. Sibelius, B. Bartok, W. Mozart, M. Bruch.

In her free time, Maria enjoys visual arts and dancing.

EXPERIENCE

In 2022, Maria participated in Night of the Arts 2022 at the Helsinki Conservatory.

In 2020, 2021, 2022 Maria's performance was part of the Helsinki Conservatory's Christmas Calendar.

On 20 September 2019, Maria performed at the Mestari Messi concert (Opera Helsinki).

On November 17, 2018, Maria performed at the Concerto Grosso - Viking Barokk concert (Musiikkitalo).

EDUCATION

Helsinki Conservatory of Music, Helsinki

2017 - now

In 2017, started music studies at the Helsinki Conservatory as a student of Mari Kortelainen.

Master classes

Since 2018, Maria has regularly participated in the master classes of Natalia Morozova, professor at the Rotterdam Conservatory.

In 2021, 2022, Maria participated in professor Lara Levi's violinist master classes.

AWARDS

In 2022, Maria received 3rd Prize in the Juhani Heinonen violin competition in the category for 10-12 year olds.

In 2021, Maria received a scholarship from the Helsinki Conservatory.

In 2021, Maria received a scholarship from the "Vivat Futures" foundation.

In 2019, Maria received a scholarship from the "Vivat Futures" foundation.