

Duo Fluo known as Flawiana Kania and Paulina Sieja is a young flute duet who has been performing since 3 years. Although their young practice, they are participating in many competitions and taking prizes not only in Poland but also in other countries. The girls are the Academy of Art in Szczecin graduates. In programme they have a classical music and arrangements of popular music, written for two flutes. Especially for alto flute and piccolo. That choice is nonrandom because the aim of this band is exploring and dissemination different varieties of flute.
