

Elizabeth Ruhadze (Roukhadze) was born on December 29, 2007, in Zoetermeer in a family of musicians, both parents are professional violinists.

At the age of 3.5, she received her first violin and started practicing with his father. Elizabeth started at the age of 7 with composer and violin teacher Hans Scheepers at the Amstelveen music school.

In 2019-2020, Elizabeth studied at the Rotterdam Hellendaal Music Institute Young Talent Academy, with Julia Dinerstein. Elizabeth has been studying at Muziektalent Academie Almere since 2020, with her father Igor Ruhadze, and since 2022 at Conservatorio Svizzera Italiana, Lugano, Switzerland, with Prof. Pavel Berman.

She took an active part in the concert activities of YTO - Young Talent Orchestra under the direction of M.Zemtsov. In recent years she has participated in various masterclasses at home and abroad.

In February 2018, Elizabeth participated in the Maassluis Young Talent Competition (category A), where she received the 3rd prize, and then twice - in 2018 and 2019, the 2nd prize at the Amstelveense Music Violin Competition

Since 2020, Elizabeth has won prizes at various national and international competitions, such as:

DOC competition (NL-Romania), 2020 - 1 prize; Music & Stars Awards (US), 2020 -1 award; London Young Musicians (UK) 2020 - 1 Prize; "Russia sings" (Moscow, Russia) 2020 - 1 prize; Newport virtuoso (USA), 2020 - 1 prize; London Young Musicians 2021 - 2 prize; Princess Christina Competition 2021 – Incentive Prize; Music & Stars Awards (USA), 2022 -1 award; London Young Musicians (UK) 2022 - 1 Prize; Princess Christina Competition 2023 – Incentive Prize, in February 2023, together with pianist Sofia Dorosh, a student of Davidsbundler Music Academy in The Hague, she won 2nd prize at the Princess Marianne Competition in Voorburg.