

Ho Mei (Edith) Suen

Edith is passionate in piano performance, which was described by adjudicators as “captivating”, “sensational”, “musical”, “virtuosic”, “with terrific energy”, “fantastic brilliance”, “with wonderful dexterity” etc.

She had obtained awards in international and regional piano competitions such as the Chopin Avenue International Piano Competition, Provincials Finals of the Ontario Music Festivals Association, the Hong Kong Piano Open Competition organized by the Hong Kong Piano Music Association.

In April 2024, as a winner of the audition class at the Unionville Music Competition in Toronto, she collaborated as a guest pianist with the Bedford Trio (a professional trio founded in 2016 and is currently the 2023/2024 Artist in Residence at the University of Toronto) in performing the Clara Schumann piano trio op. 17 in the Winners’ concert 2024 held at a prominent church in downtown Toronto.

Edith is also a lawyer and was called to the bar of Hong Kong in 2022 and had substantial managerial work experience in the luxury watch and jewelry industry. To continue her legal journey in Toronto, she is admitted to an executive Master of Laws program at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law for 2024 intake.
