

Aryan Chin – Rising Star Pianist

At just 11 years old, Aryan Chin is a passionate young pianist with a deep love for classical music. Originally from Australia and now based in Göteborg, Sweden, Aryan is excited to make his international debut at the Stockholm International Music Competition 2025, where he will compete in the solo piano category.

With a natural talent and dedication to his craft, Aryan brings emotion, precision, and a mature musicality to his performances. This competition marks a thrilling new chapter in his musical journey as he shares his artistry on an international stage for the first time.

When he's not at the piano, Aryan enjoys exploring his new home in Sweden, embracing its rich culture, and continuing to grow as a musician. Watch out for this bright young star as he takes the stage in Stockholm!
