

NORA KOPPA

Short Bio

Nora started piano studies at the age of 9. She showed great progress immediately, progressing in repertoire with ease. She has participated actively in piano festivals and national competitions in Estonia. This is her second international competition.

Nora also plays in a piano duet and loves horseback riding.