

Martyna Kruk - 16-year-old flutist, student of the Mieczyslaw Karlowicz State Music School of the First and Second Degree in Katowice in Kornelia Nowak's flute class.

She has won Grand Prix and major prizes at 50 national and international competitions, including those in England, Finland, Croatia, the USA and Poland.

Her artistic achievements include solo and chamber music performances.

She began learning to play the flute at the age of six at the Tadeusz Szeligowski School of Music in Poznan in the flute class of Justyna Pikulska.

Martyna deepened her skills at International Music Courses: Tampere Flute Fest in Tampere, Finland, Winter Music Academy in Luslawice, International Master Courses in Bydgoszcz and the B. Halska International Course in Music Interpretation in Nowy Sacz,

She had a chance to work under the guidance of outstanding professors, including: Carlos Bruneel, Karin Bonelli, Matvey Demin, Noemi Gyori, Berten D'Hollander, Ursula Janik Lipinski and Agata Igras.

Martyna is a several-time winner of the City of Poznań Prize and a Talent Bank Scholarship recipient. Since 2023, she has been a Scholarship Holder of the Able Program of the National Fund for Children.

Last year she was a laureate of the 21st edition of the “Young Poland” Program of the Minister of Culture and National Heritage.