

Leo Ruihong Zhao was born in May 2015. He began playing the piano at the age of four and a half, and is currently a Grade 3 student at Musikskolan Lilla Akademien in Stockholm, Sweden.

Leo is a joyful and curious boy with a deep love for music. He enjoys exploring different styles of music and is especially fascinated by the stories and history behind each piece. His natural curiosity leads him to ask thoughtful "what" and "why" questions in everyday life.

With an excellent memory and a quick ability to learn, Leo thrives in both his musical and academic pursuits. He reads books and listens to stories every day, fueling his imagination and expanding his knowledge.

Outside of music, Leo also enjoys playing table tennis, chess, singing, dancing, building with LEGO, watching movies, and playing games. His wide range of interests reflects his lively spirit and creative mind.
