

Evelin Marthon is a passionate 7 years old girl with a deep appreciation for classical music. She began her piano journey 17 months ago and quickly demonstrated dedication and talent. Just one year into her studies, Evelin showcased her progress by performing at her first piano recital. With each passing month, she continues to refine her skills and express her love for classical repertoire through her playing.