

The piano duo of Francis Romanovskis and Rūdolfs Pusbarnieks has been playing together for just one year. Their debut performance was assessed in the Nora Novik International Small Chamber Music Competition in Latvia this spring, where they were awarded the first category prize.

Both are active and have various hobbies aside from playing music. Rudolfs is an enthusiastic fisherman, while Francis enjoys ballroom dancing, playing volleyball and swimming.