

Lowisa Zhao Racz's Biography

Lowisa was born in 2014. Her musical journey began at the tender age of 6.5 years when she started her education at Musikskolan Lilla Akademien. Among the various instruments she was introduced to, it was the cello that captured her heart instantly. Her passion for the cello has grown ever since, leading her to dedicate countless hours to mastering this beautiful instrument.

In her third grade, Lowisa's love for music expanded as she began learning the piano as her secondary instrument. Her dedication to music is matched by her enthusiasm for sports. She enjoys swimming, skiing, figure skating, and playing tennis, and has participated in numerous tennis competitions across Sweden.

This year, Lowisa is excited to participate in her first competition at the Stockholm International Music Competition. She is eager to share the beauty of the cello with a wider audience and showcase her deep connection to this wonderful instrument.
