

Jonatan Sabbah (10) is a great musical talent and is a cellist/pianist who has won 2nd prize in cello in the youth music championship.

He is a cello student at the Barratt Due Music Institute with cellist Kari Ravnan, and a piano student with pianist Daniel Sabbah.

He is the youngest ever to win 1st prize in piano in the national Midgard Competition and did so at the age of 7 in his group of 7-11.

He is also the only one who has managed to win 1st prize in piano in the national Midgard Competition three times in a row.

He regularly performs with his siblings at various concerts in corners throughout Vestfold, Drammen and Oslo.

He is part of the musical Sabbah family and is the brother of the virtuoso pianist Samuel Sabbah (16) and singer Gabriella Sabbah (14), who are both known from Norwegian talents.
