

Evelina Vegeera is a young violinist from Estonia. She began studying the violin at the age of six. Since 2019, she has been pursuing her musical education at the Tallinn Music High School. Evelina has participated in several national competitions in Estonia, earning various awards. She is currently continuing her studies at the Tallinn Music and Ballet School. In addition to her musical interests, Evelina is also passionate about horse riding.