

My name is Vincent. I am 11 years old and live in Stockholm. I have a deep passion for music and have been playing the piano since I was four years old. I love creating melodies that bring joy to others and expressing myself through music. Outside of the piano, I enjoy staying active with tennis and swimming, balancing my interests between the arts and sports.