

Maire Wathén

Maire is a ten years old violinist who wanted to start learning her favourite instrument when she was four years old. She has been playing since that with Matleena Vehmaa. Maire loves music and has an eye for beauty but at the same time she is really practical and strong. It doesn't matter if it is about playing a concert or working in the garden, Maire is ready to start.