Toma Delev is a 9-year-old pianist, born in Sofia, Bulgaria, with a strong interest in classical music and artistic expression. He is currently in his third year of piano studies in the class of Maria Bogdanova at the National Music School "Lyubomir Pipkov" in Sofia, Bulgaria, where he receives systematic training in piano performance and music theory. His repertoire includes works from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and early 20th-century periods, with particular sensitivity to lyrical and narrative music.

He has received numerous awards at international piano competitions, including Second Prize at the International Andrey Stoyanov Competition 2024, First Prize and a Special Award for Musical Performance at the International Orion Competition 2024, First Prize at the XIX International Competition for Young Performers of Classical Musical Instruments 2025 in Pernik, and First Prize as well as the Special Award for Best Performance of a Scandinavian Piece at the Scandinavian International Instrumental Music Competition 2026.