Kaiping Qiu was born in 2009 in Zhenjiang，China.She started to play the piano at the age of 6.She studied double bass with Professor Yi Min when she was 10.In 2021，she was admitted in Affiliated Secondary School of NUA.Kaiping Qiu is currently studying double bass performance in Affiliated Secondary School of NUA.She had her first cello lesson at the age of 15 with Youxin Liu.She studied with Cheliist Yibin Chu from 2025 to 2026.

Notable prizes Kaiping has achieved include the first prize of Amigdala international music competition，the second prize of Gustav mahler international cello competition，the third prize of Stockholm international music competition.She was also the participant of 22d khachaturian international cello competition.In 2023 and 2024 Kaiping Qiu won Affiliated Secondary School of NUA scholarship.In 2025，she was selected as a candidate for Chen Xing program and hold her solo recital.The repertoire included shostakovich cello concerto，Franck violin sonata.In 2026，she was also selected into Wuhan Heming concert hall program and hold her solo recital.The repertoire included Shostakovich cello sonata，Beethoven cello sonata.

The esteemed teachers from whom Kaiping Qiu has taken masterclasses include Denis Severin， Xenia Jankovic，Bing luo and Xiaorui Wang.She also played in many famous venues Such as China National Opera House，Nanjing Pole Theater，Wuhan Heming concert hall.